UNIGUEST™ CONTINUES TO EXPAND WITH THE APPOINTMENT OF A MARKETING AND COMMUNICATIONS DIRECTOR

Nashville, Tennessee – (May 21, 2009) Uniguest™, a Nashville based provider of print and technology solutions to the hospitality, healthcare, and real estate industries announced today the addition of a new member to its team - Marketing and Communications Director, Rosemary Kelly. Uniguest™ is proud to welcome Rosemary, a dynamic professional who will help guide the Company's continued growth.

Previously, Rosemary was with Navitar, Inc. headquartered in Rochester, New York. She joined Navitar in 1998 as the Marketing and Communications Director where she was instrumental in the rebranding and marketing strategy development for three subsidiary purchases over her tenure.

"Rosemary brings to the Uniguest™ team something growing companies need more of; executive experience," said co-founder and CEO, Shawn Thomas. "Her extensive print and online marketing knowledge will help us create and reinforce our brand and culture as we grow."

Rosemary's first key role will be to assist in the redesign and launch of the combined brand since the merger of Uniguest and U.S. Hospitality Publishers, Inc., which occurred in January of this year.

"I'm excited to be joining Uniguest™," said Rosemary. "I am looking forward to applying my experience to help the company meet its goals and shape its future."
