FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

U.S. HOSPITALITY ACQUIRES LEISURE HOST EFFECTIVE JUNE 1, 2006

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (June 1, 2006)— In a major announcement regarding the hospitality publications business, U.S. Hospitality has acquired the assets of Leisure Host, formerly of Longview, Texas, most recently, of White Oak, Texas, effective June 1, 2006.

Leisure Host, a 20 year publisher of hotel Guest Directory products, is now officially a part of the U. S. Hospitality family.

U. S. Hospitality bought the rights and title to the name "Leisure Host", so all hotel contracts remain as is, and all operations will continue as normal in Nashville, TN. All independent agents of Leisure Host will become affiliate publishers within the U. S. Hospitality framework.

"Leisure Host and Jim Giles have been a respected competitor for years", says Mark Oldham, President and CEO of U. S. Hospitality. "We look forward to a smooth transition, and we look forward to assimilating the hotel and independent agent relationships under our publishing flag".

About US Hospitality

U.S. Hospitality has been providing free, custom publications to the hospitality and restaurant industry since 1986, with more than 3,000 publishing clients and an annual clientele of over 20,000 advertisers, making it the industry leader.
